

Society for Nutrition Education and Behavior

Society for Nutrition Education & Behavior Early Professional Award Award Criteria

The SNEB Early Professional award is presented to recognize an SNEB member who has made notable contributions in the field of nutrition education and to the mission of SNEB during the early stages of their career.

Criteria for Selection:

An award committee is appointed by the SNEB President to evaluate nominations using the following criteria:

- 1) Nominated by a current SNEB member.
- 2) Has worked in nutrition education and promotion for at least one but not more than 9 years, post their terminal degree (e.g., one year after their Bachelors, Masters, or Doctoral degree);
- 3) Holds current membership in SNEB.
- 4) Has been an SNEB member for at least 3 years, not necessarily consecutive (student and early professional membership applies)
- 5) Has a record of outstanding achievement in the field of nutrition education and promotion and has made acknowledged contributions to the field. These achievements could include:
 - breadth and quality of accomplishments (e.g., teaching, curriculum and materials development, nutrition education coordination in different settings, advocacy work with other organizations, media, industry, policy makers, and other collaborators);
 - the success or impact of nutrition education and promotion, resources, grants or programs;
 - policy changes garnered in support of nutrition education and promotion to assure sustainability and/or growth of a program, intervention, or other type of nutrition education and promotion effort;
 - leadership of nutrition education and promotion programs;
 - collaborations on and publication of scholarly materials; or institutional/national/regional reports related to nutrition education and promotion
 - contribution to SNEB, as a volunteer leader or in another capacity that fosters SNEB's mission (To promote effective nutrition education and healthy behavior through research, policy and practice), including accepted SNEB annual conference session proposals or abstracts and webinar proposals.

Ideal candidates for this award should also be active contributors to the Society and rising up in their leadership and service to the Society.

To submit a nominations, go to <https://sneb.submittable.com/submit> and click “Submit” next to SNEB Award Nomination – 2017.